everything i filed in my federal grievance and violating in my disciplinary hearing

3. What was the result, if any?

No response, like nothing ever happened

4. What steps, if any, did you take to appeal that decision? Is the grievance process completed? If not, explain why not. (Describe all efforts to appeal to the highest level of the grievance process.)

I don't believe that official's turned the grievance in to grievance board, they just held on to the grievance hoping that i let it go by. I did send I am I another grievance, and I am waiting on their response. however, my federal grievance is my follow up. also I filed another grievance with ventress about three month ago. over violations of jurisdiction venus, challenging all jurisdiction of prison and state.

I also requested jurisdiction hearing, for I am not state property. I never received an response so they waived their rights to argument.

F. If you did not file a grievance:

1. If there are any reasons why you did not file a grievance, state them here:

2. If you did not file a grievance but you did inform officials of your claim, state who you informed, when and how, and their response, if any:

---

G. Please set forth any additional information that is relevant to the exhaustion of your administrative remedies.

all alabama state prisons are in fact illegal in the U.S. and hand unconstitutional by Supreme and Federal laws and ruling.

(Note: You may attach as exhibits to this complaint any documents related to the exhaustion of your administrative remedies.)

VIII. Previous Lawsuits

The "three strikes rule" bars a prisoner from bringing a civil action or an appeal in federal court without paying the filing fee if that prisoner has "on three or more prior occasions, while incarcerated or detained in any facility, brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless the prisoner is under imminent danger of serious physical injury." 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g).
